

Privacy Policy for Entrigue, Inc.

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

Last Updated: April 2, 2026

Introduction

Entrigue, Inc. (“we,” “us,” or “our”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting your personal information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, disclose, and safeguard your information when you visit our website:

<http://www.EntrigueConsulting.com>.

This policy applies to all users, including those located in the United States, European Economic Area (EEA), and California.

Information We Collect

We collect information that you voluntarily provide to us, including:

- Name
- Email address
- Phone number

We may also collect limited technical data such as:

- IP address
- Browser type
- Cookies and usage data

We do not sell or rent your personal information.

How We Use Your Information

We use your information to:

- Respond to inquiries
- Provide requested services
- Communicate about services, updates, or offerings

Unless you opt out, we may send occasional marketing emails. You can unsubscribe at any time.

Legal Basis for Processing (EEA Users)

If you are located in the EEA, we process your personal data based on:

- Your consent
- Performance of a contract
- Our legitimate business interests
- Compliance with legal obligations

Sharing of Information

We do not share your personal information with third parties except:

- To fulfill your request (e.g., service delivery)
- With trusted service providers (e.g., Eventbrite, analytics tools)
- When required by law or to comply with legal obligations

These providers may only use your information to perform services on our behalf. We do not sell or share personal information as defined under California law.

We may share aggregated, non-identifiable data with partners for analytics purposes.

Your Rights & Choices

You may:

- Request access to your data
- Correct or update your information
- Request deletion of your data
- Opt out of communications

California Residents (CCPA/CPRA):

You have the right to request access to the personal information we collect, request deletion of your data, and not be discriminated against for exercising your privacy rights.

EEA Residents (GDPR):

You may also have the right to restrict or object to processing and request data portability.

To make a request, please contact us using the information below.

Registrations & Forms

You are not required to register to use our website. However, when you submit a contact form or register for events, you provide information (such as name and email) used to respond to your inquiry or provide services.

Cookies & Tracking Technologies

We use cookies to:

- Improve user experience
- Analyze website performance
- Recognize repeat visitors

Some third-party tools (such as Google Analytics) may also use cookies. You can manage or disable cookies through your browser settings. Where required by law, we obtain your consent before using non-essential cookies.

Data Retention

We retain personal information only as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes outlined in this policy, unless a longer retention period is required by law.

Data Security

We take reasonable measures to protect your information.

- Data is encrypted during transmission (HTTPS)
- Access is limited to authorized personnel
- Systems are maintained in secure environments

International Data Transfers

If you are accessing our website from outside the United States, your information may be transferred to and processed in the United States.

Third-Party Links

Our website may contain links to external sites. We are not responsible for the privacy practices of those websites and encourage you to review their policies.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Updates will be posted on this page with a revised “Last Updated” date.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or wish to exercise your rights, please contact us:

Phone: 303-808-5103

Email: Kelly@entrigueconsulting.com